

The Do Not Call Program (or the Telephone Consumer Protection Act" should be left as is. It is very disturbing that that people who solicit can call at any time and they usually call when you sit down to eat dinner. I personally have had people call me after 8:00pm at night.